

Womens Knits

Are you after womens cotton knitted tops produced using eco-friendly practices? Yet at the same time modern and fashionable? Then look no further, because we have just what you want right here.

This is because at Brain Tree we operate on the philosophy that environmentally friendly clothing need not come at the expense of style.

Whether you're after casual wear, clothing to wear at the office, or a suitable outfit for a night in town, we have what you need.

Our womens knitwear comes in bamboo cotton or hemp cotton. Bamboo cotton is comfy and soft to the touch, while hemp cotton is durable and made to last. You can mix and match womens knitwear with other eco-friendly clothing in our range.

Are there any colours or designs suitable for you in our range of womens cotton knitted tops? Take a look at our range now and see for yourself.
